The Humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Die Jovis, 17 Januarii, 1733.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave, in the humbleſt Manner, to return Your Majeſty our grateful and ſincere Thanks for Your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

Your Majeſty has given too many Proofs of Your good Offices and Endeavours to preſerve the publick Peace and Tranquillity, for us not to be thoroughly perſuaded, that Your Majeſty cannot, regardleſs and unconcerned, behold a War now unhappily begun in Europe, undertaken by ſo powerful an Alliance, and proſecuted with ſo much Vigour.

And as no Occaſion can require more Caution, more Wiſdom, and more Circumſpection, than the preſent, to dictate what Part is the moſt proper for Great Britain to act, ſo we have the fulleſt Satisfaction in reflecting, in whoſe Breaſt it lies to make that Determination for us.

And as Your Majeſty has avoided coming to any final Determination, till all Engagements, by which You are bound to the ſeveral Powers concerned, are duly examined, till all Facts are fully and fairly ſtated, and till the Reſult of the Councils of other Powers, in the ſame Situation with Your Majeſty, are known; ſo we cannot but look on this prudent Suſpence of Your Reſolutions as an Earneſt of our Safety in Your Majeſty's Councils, not doubting but the ſame Wiſdom, which prompted Your Majeſty to delay Your Determination, will alſo direct Your Choice, whenever You ſhall come to make it.

The whole Series of Your Majeſty's Tranſactions during Your moſt glorious and happy Reign, has convinced us, that there is no Task to which You are unequal, nor any Difficulties You cannot ſurmount: We therefore beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty not only of our Gratitude for Your paſt, but our Reliance on Your future Care; and intreat Your Majeſty to believe, that it is as impoſſible for us, who are benefited by the Merit of that Conduct, not to do every Thing in our Power to deſerve it, as it is even for thoſe who with it leſs, not to allow it.

Whatever Expectations therefore, thoſe who are envious of the Proſperity, jealous of the Honour, or Rivals to the Intereſt of the Britiſh Nation, may conceive from the Reſult of our Deliberations in Parliament; yet when all Event ſhall ſee, that every new Opportunity we have of declaring our Sentiments, is a new Proof of the Harmony ſubſiſting between Your Majeſty and Your Subjects, and of the Confidence they place in You: we doubt not, but that all Hopes of Advantage to be taken from what ſhall paſs amongſt us, will be immediately diſtelled, and that the Zeal, Vigour and Unanimity, that ſhall appear amongſt us, will not only double the Aſſiduity of thoſe who court Your Majeſty's Friendſhip, but the Apprehenſions of thoſe (if any ſuch there are) who may provoke Your Reſentment.

And becauſe the ſureſt Way, in theſe general Troubles and Commotions, to prevent any Deſign being formed to moleſt or annoy Your Majeſty's Dominions, is to ſhew how unſucceſsful ſuch a Deſign muſt prove; nothing ſhall be wanting on our Part, that may conduce to the ſtrengthening Your Majeſty's Hands, and putting the Nation, at this critical and important Juncture, in ſuch a Poſture of Defence, as ſhall effectually protect its Honour from any Inſult, its Safety from any Danger, and its Tranquillity from any Attempt to diſturb it.

We beg Leave alſo to aſſure Your Majeſty, that the ſtrict and due Regard we always pay to Your Royal Recommendation, as well as a proper Concern for the Support of our own Characters and Dignity, will certainly make us avoid, with the utmoſt Caution, all Heats and Animoſities in our Debates, that we may ſhew, with a becoming Unanimity, our Duty to Your Majeſty, our Care of the publick Welfare, and our Regard to the Intereſts and Liberties of the People: We will alſo prevent, as far as in us lies, any improper Delays retarding the Diſpatch of publick Buſineſs, or protracting the Seſſion into an unneceſſary Length, that Your Majeſty may not have the juſt Pleaſure you propoſe to Your Self in taking again the Senſe of the Nation in a new Repreſentative poſtponed; but that You may receive the earlieſt Demonſtrations of the good Will of Your People, and have the Satisfaction to ſee they are as capable of gratefully feeling that Happineſs they enjoy under Your Majeſty's juſt and wiſe Government, as You are ready and willing to confer it.

His Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Thank You for all is dutiful and loyal Addreſs. The Teſtimony you expreſs in my conſtant Attention and Endeavours for preſerving the publick Peace and Tranquillity, and promoting the Intereſts of my People, is extremely acceptable to Me; and as the Honour and Dignity of my Crown, and the Good of My Kingdoms, are my ſole View, you may be aſſured of the Continuance of My Care and Vigilance for Thoſe deſirable Ends, and of My firm Reſolution, in all Events, to take ſuch Meaſures, as may beſt anſwer the Confidence you expreſs in Me, and ſecure the Safety and Happineſs of the Nation.

The humble Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons to the King.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, beg leave to return Your Majeſty our Humble Thanks for your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

We are truly ſenſible of Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and bear with the deepeſt ſenſe of Gratitude the Concern, You are pleaſed to expreſs, for the War unhappily begun in Europe; and acknowledge with the higheſt Satisfaction this new Proof, Your Majeſty has given us, of your great Wiſdom in waiting at this nice and critical Juncture the Reſult of the Councils of thoſe Powers, who are more nearly and immediately intereſted in the Conſequences of this War, before your Majeſty makes any final Determination for your own Conduct; not wondering, that the ſame Prudence and Precaution, the ſame Concern and Circumſpection, that have guided and directed every Step hitherto taken in your Majeſty's happy and auſpicious Reign, ſhould now induce You to take Time to examine the Facts alledged on both Sides, and to concert with thoſe Allies, who are under the ſame Engagements with your Majeſty, without having taken Part in the War, particularly the States General of the united Provinces, ſuch Meaſures, as ſhall be thought moſt adviſeable for the Common Safety, and for reſtoring the Peace of Europe.

That your Majeſty in all your Tranſactions, in this great and important Affair, will have the ſtricteſt Regard to the Honour and Dignity of Your Crown and Kingdom, and to the true Intereſt of Your People, is what not only Your Majeſty's Royal Aſſurances, but our happy Experience of all Your Majeſty's paſt Conduct leave us no Room to doubt.

And as We have an intire Confidence in Your Majeſty's Judgment to diſcern, and Sollicitude to procure the Welfare and Intereſt of your Subjects, ſo Your Majeſty may depend upon the effectual Support and ready Aſſiſtance of your Faithful Commons in all ſuch Meaſures, as your Majeſty ſhall find it neceſſary to enter into for attaining and ſecuring theſe great Ends.

And we beg leave further to aſſure Your Majeſty, that Your Commons will make ſuch Proviſion for the Safety of Your Kingdoms, as the preſent Situation of Affairs and Exigency of the Times require, ſuch Proviſions, as ſhall effectually ſecure Your Majeſty's Kingdoms, Rights, and Poſſeſſions from all Inſults and Dangers, as ſhall preſerve the Reſpect due to the Britiſh Nation abroad, and guard its Safety at home; that not the leaſt Encouragement may be given to the deſperate Views of thoſe, who never fail to flatter themſelves with Hopes of ſome Advantage from publick Troubles and Diſorders, and of moleſting the inſeparable Intereſts of your Majeſty and Your People.

Such Eſtimates and Demands, as your Majeſty ſhall think fit to lay before Your Commons for the publick Service, ſhall be immediately taken into our Conſideration; and Your Majeſty may depend on our known Zeal for raiſing ſuch Supplies, as ſhall be neceſſary and anſwerable to the preſent Circumſtances, with our uſual Chearfulneſs and approved Fidelity, and a due Regard both to the Eaſe and Intereſt of our Fellow Subjects.

And that the publick Buſineſs may be diſpatch'd with all proper Expedition, and the preſent Seſſion not protracted by any unneceſſary Delays, we will endeavour to avoid all Heats and Animoſities, and to proceed with that Unanimity, which the Juſtice and Prudence of your Majeſty's mild and wiſe Government may expect and claim, and may give Weight to our Deliberations, and maintain the Dignity of Parliament.

LONDON Jan. 12.

Saturday laſt his Excellency the Chevalier de Oſſorio, Envoy Extraordinary of his Sardinian Majeſty, gave a moſt ſplendid Entertainment to the Miniſters of State and Foreign Miniſters, at his Houſe in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, on Account of the vaſt Succeſs wherewith it has pleaſed God to bleſs the Arms of the King his Maſter, and thoſe of his Allies. It was remarkable, that of 21 Foreign Miniſters reſiding at this Court, 16 of them appeared at Table.

On Thurſday laſt a Meſſenger arrived at St. James's from the Prince of Orange at the Bath, with an Account, that his Highneſs was very hearty, and that the Waters agreed well with him, and had done his Highneſs great Good.

We have Accounts from Durham, that a warm and loud Diſpute aroſe the laſt Week, between two Gentlewomen in that Cathedral in time of Divine Service, about their Right of Precedency to each other, inſomuch that the Service of the Church was interrupted by it for ſome time, and the occaſion examined. Hereupon Endeavours were uſed for a Reconciliation, to which neither of the Parties would agree; and 'tis believed, that nothing leſs than a Court of Honour will determine this important point between the two Ladies.

'Tis written from Pool in Montgomeryſhire, of the 26th paſt, That the Goal is fuller of Priſoners than it has been for a long time, and two of them for a very particular crime, viz. At the Fair there, two young Men, warmed with Liquor, wandering about the Town at an unſeaſonable Hour, met with a Woman, who, by report, was not much cooler than they, whom they accoſted in a very amorous manner, and prevailed with her to take a Walk with them towards the Church-Yard, where being come, they expoſtulated with her ſome time about their buſineſs, and during that time there came a drunken Fellow thro' the Church-Yard, and ſeeing them there, knew them all; but he thinking it too late to go home in that pickle, went to take a Nap in the Church-Porch; and by that time the two young Rogues began to attack the Woman's Chaſtity, and ſhe, 'tis ſaid, reſiſted with all her Power; however they proved too ſtrong for her, and had knowledge of her Body ſeveral times, and the Woman (who was married) being troubled with an Aſthma, was by the violence they uſed, ſuffocated in the very Act; and by their own confeſſion they had carnal Knowledge of her body ſeveral times after ſhe was dead, and when they were ſatiated they left her lying in the ſame poſture as they had uſed her, viz. upon her back, with her Coats thrown over her Face, her Legs extended, and the Parts bare, and in that poſture ſhe was found next day. The Fellow in the Porch, when he awaked, ſaw them engaged, but went home, and took no notice of it at that time; however in the morning, when the Woman was found ſo, there was immediately a ſtrict Enquiry after the Authors of ſuch a monſtrous Villany; and it was obſerved that her Husband had been with with her, at the Fair, selling Stockings, which was the business they followed, and that he was very cross, and much out of humour all that Day, therefore 'twas concluded he was the Murderer, and without any further enquiry he was immediately committed, and heavily loaden with Irons: After which the drunken Fellow had no quietness night nor day, but from the checks of his own Conscience for concealing the discovery of the true Murderers, till at last he was advised to inform the Bailiffs of that Borough, who, upon the Information, forthwith issued out their Warrant, by which the Rogues were apprehended, and upon their Examination confessed the several Facts before mentioned, and were immediately committed to Goal, and loaded with Irons, and the poor injured Husband discharged.

CHARLESTOWN April 13.

On Tuesday last the Seventeen following Bills were ratified, when the Honourable the Commons House of Assembly invited His Excellency the Governor, with His Majesty's Honourable Council, and James Oglethorpe Esq; to an elegant Supper; there were likewise signed an Address, Petition and Remonstrance to His Majesty in Council: And on the Day following the Assembly adjourned to Tuesday the Fourteenth of May next.

13. An Act for repairing, enlarging and Pewing the Parochial Church of St. George's Parish in Dorchester.

14. An Act for the better regulating the Port and Harbour of Charles-Town, and the Shipping frequenting the same.

15. An Act *for establishing a Ferry at North-*Eddisto River, from the Place called the Point of Pines, belonging to Mr. Paul Grimball on Eddisto Island to Mrs. Bryan's Landing near Leadenwaw-Creek on Wadmelaw Island, or as near thereunto as may be in the Parish of St. Paul's in Colleton County.

16. An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty on Madera Wine, Rum, Molasses, Flower, Muscovado and clayed Sugar, for the Use of the Publick of this Province.

17. An Act for raising the Sum of 41,511 l. 9 s. 10 d. 2 q. for Defraying the Charges of the Government for One Year, commencing the 25th Day of March 1733, and ending the 25th of March 1734.

On Wednesday last a Special Jury was summon'd to enquire into a forcible Entry and Detainer, or either of them, whereof Mrs. Sarah Somerville, Capt. Edw. Croft, Messrs. Childerman Croft, Abraham Croft, and Edw. Wigg were accused, by James Græme Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this County, upon his own View, pursuant to the Stat. 15. R. 2. And tho' it was very obſervable the Juſtice laboured hard to convince the Jury of the Force, which if they had found, the Defendants would have been obliged to have tendred a Traverſe, yet were they ſuch a Parcel of undiſtinguiſhing Mortals, as to bring in their Verdict IGNORAMUS.

BOSTON,

The Speech of His Excellency Jonathan Belcher, Eſq; our Governor, to the Great and General Court now ſetting here Jan. 29th 1733,4.

Gentlemen of the Council and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

SInce your laſt ſitting, the repeated Accounts from Great Britain, of the Fears of an univerſal War in Europe, I believe will make you think it wiſe to conſider what is neceſſary to be done, for putting this Province in a Poſture of Defence; you cannot but be ſenſible how often I have preſt upon the Aſſemblies, the Repair of all his Majeſty's Forts in the Province, more eſpecially that of Caſtle William, and the Year is now far advanced, that ſome of the Materials for the Work muſt be procured as ſoon as poſſible. You will alſo do well to conſider the Condition of the Forts or Batteries in the Towns of Charlſtown, Salem, and Marblehead, and of thoſe on the Eaſtern and Weſtern Frontiers; and you Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, I doubt not will make ſuch a Supply of Money, as may be abſolutely neceſſary to the Services I have mentioned.

Whatever you can propoſe for the Safety and Defence of his Majeſty's good Subjects, will (according to the Power) find my chearful Conſent, and I hope your preſent ſitting, will be carried on with ſuch Peace and Unanimity as will convince the World that the Intereſt of the Province, is your ſincere Aim and Endeavour.
